NeutraFluor 5000 Plus Toothpaste

What type of product is NeutraFluor 5000 Plus Toothpaste?

NeutraFluor 5000 Plus is a high concentration sodium fluoride toothpaste for use by persons who have a high risk of dental decay. Scientific research conducted with toothpaste containing a daily dose of fluoride has shown that this toothpaste containing a substantially higher amount of fluoride is applied to the teeth shall be observed. This brand against tooth decay causing cavities in the mouth.

What is the product?

The active ingredients fluoride and casein phosphopeptide are the main ingredients in this product. The toothpaste is a paste containing a number of other ingredients. These ingredients may cause tooth whitening and cleaning actions of the toothpaste.

These ingredients include sodium fluoride, casein phosphopeptide, potassium pyroborophosphate, magnesium 800, xantham gum, flavour, sodium benzoate, sodium laureth sulphate, bentonite (blue and green water).

NeutraFluor 5000 Plus is registered on the Australian Register of Therapeutic Goods with its number A1471495. NeutraFluor 5000 Plus comes in a 100g tube.

Before using this product:

NeutraFluor 5000 Plus should only be used on the recommendation of your dentist or doctor. Use of a tooth decay prevention routine NeutraFluor 5000 Plus should not be used by any person with known allergies to the ingredients or any of the ingredients used in oral hygiene.

Children under 10 years should not use NeutraFluor 5000 Plus. Use in children 10-16 years should only be supervised. Do not use NeutraFluor 5000 Plus as a mouthwash or gargle. Rubber or rubber-like products should be cleaned before using this product and discarded with the use of any mouthwash or gargle.

To use the product properly:

Do not swallow the toothpaste. The toothpaste acts on the surface of your teeth and is not swallowed. If NeutraFluor 5000 Plus has been recommended for use by a child aged 10-16 years old, supervision is recommended.

Dosage:

Follow the instructions unless otherwise instructed by your dentist or doctor.

1. Adults and children over 16 years and older apply a thin ribbon of NeutraFluor 5000 Plus to each toothbrush and brush teeth thoroughly for two minutes.
2. After use, rinse out. For best results, do not eat or drink for 30 minutes.

NeutraFluor 5000 Plus should be applied to the toothpaste and not be used in excess of 12 times a day or in excess of 20g of toothpaste per day.

In the event of an accident, contact your nearest Poison Information Centre (or hospital accident and emergency department) or call your local emergency service.

Unwanted Effects:

Allergic reactions have been reported with the use of fluoride toothpaste. Should you experience an unwanted effect from using this product, you should stop using the product and consult your doctor or dentist.

How to store the product:

You should keep your NeutraFluor 5000 Plus below 30°C and out of reach of children. This product should not be used by persons who are sensitive to any of the ingredients used in oral hygiene.

Important Reminders:

This toothpaste has been recommended specifically for you. Do not share this toothpaste with anyone else. If you have any concerns or questions you should consult your doctor or dentist.

Where this product comes from:

NeutraFluor 5000 Plus is a product developed by Colgate Oral Pharmaceuticals, USA.

Colgate Oral Care

323 George Street Sydney, NSW 2000.

45 Griffith Road, Lower Hutt, New Zealand.

This Colgate and NeutraFluor Registered.

For all questions regarding this product, please call Consumer Information Service.

Free Call: 1800 822 307 (Australian) or 0800 441 740 (New Zealand).

This Colgate brand was developed in June 2008.